

Parish Council Financial and Management Risk Assessment May 2023

“The greatest risk facing a local authority is not being able to deliver the activity or services expected of the Council”

This document has been produced to enable the Parish Council to assess the financial and management risks that it faces and satisfy that it has taken adequate steps to minimise them.

Subject	Risk(s) Identified	High/Medium /Low	Management/Control of Risk	Review/Assess/Revise
Business Continuity	Risk of Council not being able to continue its business due to an unexpected circumstance	High	To ensure a Business Continuity Plan is in place	Review Plan annually
Precept	Adequacy of precept requirements	Low	To determine the amount of precept required the Parish Council will regularly receive budget update information and the precept is an agenda item for Council to consider. At the budget setting meeting Council receives a budget update report, including actual position and projected position to the year end with indicative figures or costings obtained by the Clerk. The Clerk provides a draft budget for the following year based on these costings and making provision for specific projects previously identified by the Council for the coming financial year. Following the inclusion of any amendments suggested by the Council the proposed budget is presented to the first Council meeting in January for adoption and the precept amount agreed.	Existing procedure is adequate
	Requirements Submitted to Hinckley and Bosworth BC	Low	The Clerk submits the precept figure to Hinckley and Bosworth Borough Council in writing.	Consideration should be given to adequate level of reserves (Reserves Policy adopted on 16.05.2022)
	Amount not received by Groby Parish Council	Medium	The two precept amounts are included on the income report presented to Council, when received.
Financial Records	Inadequate records  Financial irregularities	Medium	The Financial Regulations set out the requirements for banking, including internet banking, cheques, and electronic payments i.e. BACS and the reconciliation of accounts in April, in view of the repeal of s.150 (5) of the LGA 1972 in respect of the two signatory rule.	Review Financial Regulations at least annually.

Bank and Banking	Inadequate Checks	Low	The Council has Financial Regulations that set out the requirements for banking, including internet banking, cheques, and electronic payments i.e. BACS and the reconciliation of accounts in April in view of the repeal of s.150 (5) of the LGA 1972.	Review Financial Regulations at least annually. Review the bank signatory list when necessary, especially after the AGM and an election.
	Bank Errors	Low	If the bank does make an error when processing cheques, cash and electronic payments these are found when the bank accounts are reconciled on a monthly basis, any error is immediately reported to the Bank and corrected by them.	Monitor Bank Statements monthly.
	Loss	Low	Losses would result from a bank error and these would be immediately reported to the Bank. Possible losses from unauthorised access to the Council Bank accounts are minimal as security devices used to access the accounts are locked in the Council's safe to which only the Clerk and the Deputy Clerk have keys.	Monitor Bank Statements monthly.
	Charges	Low	Bank charges are only incurred in the normal manner such as costs for cheques and paying into the account.	Monitor Bank Statements monthly.
	Security	Medium	As detailed in the Council's Financial Regulations, where a computer requires use of a personal identification number (PIN) or other password(s), for access to the council's records on that computer, a note shall be made of the PIN and Passwords and shall be handed to and retained by the Chairman of Council in a sealed dated envelope. This envelope may not be opened other than in the presence of two other councillors. After the envelope has been opened, in any circumstances, the PIN and / or passwords shall be changed as soon as practicable. The fact that the sealed envelope has been opened, in whatever circumstances, shall be reported to all members immediately and formally to the next available meeting of the Council.
